

Professionals Platform Series

10 June 2026

Dear friends,

We are excited to share this inaugural Professionals Platform Series announcement.

Our first session is scheduled for 23 July and will feature a discussion on:

What does a recovery-friendly workplace look like?

Featured Speakers

- Dawn Marie Klug (Employee Assistance Network, Class A Trustee)
- Dr. Andrea G. Barthwell (Global Recovery Initiatives Foundation)
- Dr. Matthew C. Chow (TELUS Health)

To learn more about our speakers and read their biographies, please visit our website:

Please see the announcement and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) link for additional information about the Series.

We invite you to share this announcement with your professional network, particularly those working in human resources, people and culture, employee assistance programs (EAPs), benefits, wellness, healthcare, and behavioral health.

Together, we can help broaden the conversation about recovery-friendly workplaces and expand awareness of resources that support professionals, employers, and communities.

We look forward to having you join us for what promises to be an impactful conversation.

We are also grateful for the support of members across Areas 06, 08, 51, 88, and 93 whose talent, dedication, and service have helped bring this Series to life.

In Love and Service,

Deirdre Joy (Area 19 — Chicagoland)

Toma M. (Area 19 — Chicagoland)

Vera F. (Area 31 — Western Massachusetts)

Vikram V. (Area 86 — Western Ontario)
